

After a short and pleasant discussion we have to inform you, with great grief in our hearts, that the most unpleasant and disgusting thing in our lives is

DEATH

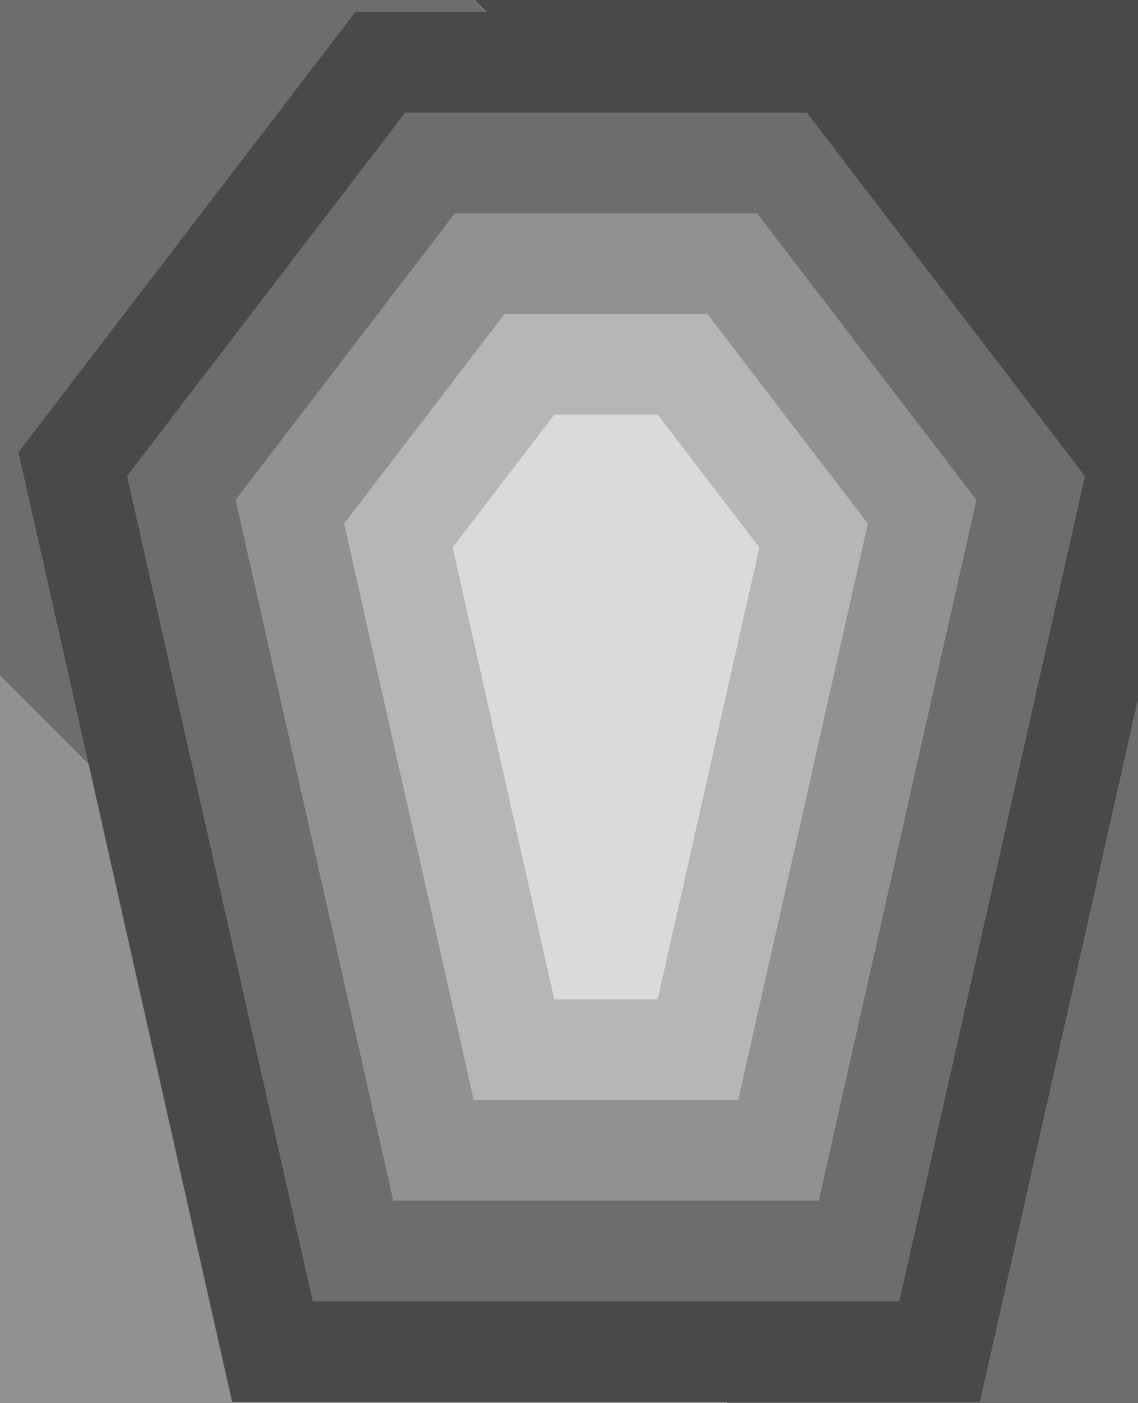

11. 24. 2017. – 11. 25. 2017.

Is everything actually black and white?

Or is there something in between?

There is a new player on the market! The most unusual agency specialized for transporting deceased members of our society. Specially tailored for those who think that death shouldn't be taken so seriously.

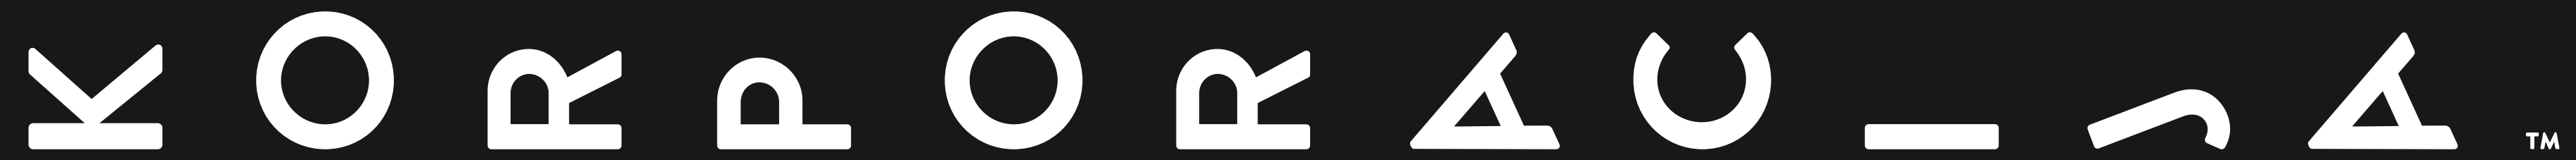

Due to an unprecedented market demand the agency decided to expand it's services and soon became larger than life itself.
